

2. (Spoken): "When people ask, 'Is that a girl?', tell them I'm a baseball player. This is my game."

ALL AMERICAN GIRLS (from Girls of Summer)

1. He wrote we're no good
2. He wrote that we're not better
3. He said to go back home and cook a meal or knit a sweater
4. Well that's just what he says but I have got an answer in mind...

5. I've worked so hard to get here
6. I've bled, and sweat and cried
7. A patch of skin torn up down from my thigh to my backside
4. So let these words sink in, the way to beat 'em all is to win!
We're not going away
9. We're not gonna call it a day
2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. We've all come to play
8. And we're not gonna quit just because they tell us

10. We won't just sit and be quiet
5, 6, 7. We might just start a little riot
8, 9. We win and they can't deny it
1. We're not gonna quit cause Jimmy Benson writes it

3. Think of the times when you wanted to play
1, 2, 3, 4. The boys wouldn't move and they stood in your way

1-10. Oh, The boys are away and we're left here to stand in their place

1-5. From the factory floor

5-10. to the house in the stix

10. From the fact the that I've been playing ball since I've been six

1-10. We'll stand in the box and we'll hit everything that's thrown our way. We're all American girls!

1-10, ensemble:

We'll show those fans in the bleachers
We'll swing and- leave 'em speechless
We know what it means to be Peaches!
We're not gonna quit just because they all tell us.

Ensemble:

We're the moms and the wives and the daughters
We're taking it right on the chin from reporters

1-10. And we're gonna go on that field

Ensemble: We're gonna march right on to that field!

All: And show 'em today

Group 1:

(We're) All American Girls (x3)

Group 2:

We're not going away
We're not gonna call it a day
We've all come to play

All: We're here to stay. All American girls!
